June 30 Workshop

Beyond the Buzzwords: Debunking DOK Myths and Elevating Classroom Rigor

Join us for a full-day, interactive workshop that tackles the most persistent myths and misconceptions about DOK and reframes it as a practical, powerful tool for promoting rigor and coherence.

July 1 Workshop

Unlocking Multilingual Potential: Shifting from Monolingual Measures

This workshop examines the impact of current policies, challenges prevailing narrative about assessment and explores asset-based alternatives.

FEATURED SPEAKER

Sara Christopherson

Sara currently serves as the Director of WebbAlign at WCEPS.

She works with educators, educational publishers, assessment developers, and other stakeholders to enhance and strengthen their use of Depth of Knowledge (DOK), understanding of alignment, interpretation of curriculum standards, instructional design and practice, and overall assessment literacy in support of a coherent system that supports all learners.

FEATURED AUTHOR

Margo Gottlieb, Ph.D.

Dr. Gottlieb's recent book, Classroom Assessment in Multiple Languages: A Handbook for Teachers, serves as a resource for how to create assessment systems that enable understanding of the whole student, not just that fraction of the student only visible as an English learner.

Cost

- Day 1 (Jun 30) - $400
- Day 2 (Jul 1) - $400
- Both days - $700
